Power UP Your Future: Technology Boot Camp 2015

Speakers

Robert Battle
Bob Battle devotes 100% of his practice to serious traffic defense and criminal litigation in state and federal courts. He is in court almost every day throughout the Richmond, Virginia area, including the City of Richmond, Chesterfield County, Hanover County, New Kent County, Caroline County, Sussex County, Dinwiddie County and Greensville County. In 2012, Bob was hired by Lawyers and Judges Publishing Company to write a book on Virginia DUI defense, titled Virginia DUI Defense: the Law and Practice, along with co-author James Nesci of Arizona. Bob earned his B.A. from the University of Notre Dame and his J.D. from the College of William & Mary.

Joan J. Burroughs
Joan J. Burroughs has been a member of the Virginia State Bar since October 2011 and has practiced in every level of court in the Commonwealth. She has argued cases in both the Court of Appeals of Virginia and the Supreme Court of Virginia, while also maintaining an active trial docket in the Richmond area. Prior to joining The Law Offices of Sara M. Gaborik, Joan worked as an Assistant Public Defender at the Richmond Public Defender’s Office. She earned her undergraduate degree from Randolph-Macon Woman’s College and her J.D. from the Appalachian School of Law.

Greg Collins
Greg Collins is a third-year law student at the University of Richmond School of Law. Greg graduated from the United States Naval Academy.

Sarah M. Gaborik
Sara Gaborik is a seasoned Richmond, VA attorney with extensive experience in both jury and bench trials. She has built solid working relationships, as a trial lawyer, with the judges and prosecutors in the Central Virginia area and understands how to work within the legal system both strategically and tactically. She understands how to use scientific and technical information to enhance her clients’ defense. Sara received her B.S. from Old Dominion University and her J.D. from the University of Richmond School of Law.

Steve Geissinger
Steve Geissinger is a third-year law student at the University of Richmond School of Law. Steve graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University.

Mohammad Imaad
Mohammad Imaad is a third-year law student at the University of Richmond School of Law. Mohammad graduated from the University of Virginia.

Kerry McClung
Kerry McClung is a third-year law student at the University of Richmond School of Law. Kerry graduated from the University of Richmond.

Charles Molster
Chip Molster is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Winston & Strawn LLP. He has extensive experience handling complex litigation matters in federal and state courts around the country and also provides outside general counsel services to various clients. Over the years, Chip has concentrated his practice in the areas of complex patent infringement, telecommunications, antitrust, injunction, trademark/copyright/trade secrets, and other commercial litigation. Chip received his B.A. from the University of Virginia and his J.D. from the University of Richmond School of Law.

Thomas Shaia

Thomas Shaia currently is a Deputy Commonwealth’s Attorney in Spotsylvania County. He has been a prosecutor since December 1988. Tom has been a guest lecturer at University of Richmond School of Law and the College of William and Mary, is a current Teacher at the Top Gun academy involving narcotics and prosecution and has taught at numerous police academies on a wide range of subjects and lectured at a number different seminars involving money laundering, asset forfeiture, and criminal gangs. Tom received his B.A. from George Mason University and his J.D. from Case Western University School of Law.

Roger Skalbeck

Roger V. Skalbeck is an Adjunct Professor of Law, as well as the Associate Law Librarian for Electronic Resources & Services at the Georgetown Law Center. Roger has worked for more than two decades in the legal profession, focusing on technology management and implementation. He worked at George Mason School of Law for several years, as well as at law firms in three metropolitan areas of the United States. He has published articles on intellectual property and technology topics, as well as an annual ranking of 200 law school home pages. Roger received his B.A. from Macalester College, his M.L.I.S. from Dominican University and his J.D. from George Mason University School of Law.

Matt Smyers

Matt Smyers is a lawyer turned marketing strategist, who applies his experience as a lawyer and entrepreneur to help law firms grow through strategic, well-executed marketing plans and initiatives. Before entering the legal marketing profession, Matt spent eight years in the medical malpractice insurance industry, where he was responsible for managing litigation throughout the mid-Atlantic for the largest medical malpractice insurance company in the United States. Matt earned his B.S. from Juniata College and his law degree from Widener University School of Law in Harrisburg, PA.