VIRGINIA STATE BAR FAMILY LAW SECTION
LAW STUDENT WRITING COMPETITION

The Virginia State Bar Family Law Section is sponsoring an annual writing competition open to second year law students attending Virginia and Washington, D.C. law schools. The winning entry will be published in the Winter issue of the Virginia Family Law Quarterly. The Quarterly is the official publication of the Virginia State Bar Family Law Section, and distributed to approximately 2,000 Virginia judges, lawyers and professors. The author of the winning article will also receive a plaque from the Section commemorating the achievement, which will be presented at the Virginia State Bar Annual Advanced Family Law Seminar in Richmond.

Entries can be on any aspect of Virginia family law, and must be no longer than 2,500 words. Any entries longer than 2,500 words will not be considered. All entries should be sent to the below email address by no later than November 1st. The winning entry will be determined in the sole discretion of the Virginia State Bar Family Law Section Board of Governors.

Send entries or questions to Brian M. Hirsch, Editor, Virginia Family Law Quarterly at BHirsch@NOVAFamilylaw.com.
