March 13, 2020

Dear Students,

By now, you have seen the University’s announcement of a Modified Operations Plan. We’re reviewing it carefully, and encourage you to review the policies that pertain to students (including student employees, events, etc.). We are seeking more information on the student employment policy specifically and will follow up student with employees as we learn more.

The Law School building will remain open at this time. The law library will be closed this weekend as planned. If you’re able, you may consider picking up your belongings from your carrel early next week out of an abundance of caution – but don’t worry if you’re unable to come in.

Please let us know if any questions arise, and we’ll report back next week with any further updates. Note that our plan for distance learning is still in place.

As a reminder, the most up-to-date information from the Law School will be posted here. You can find University-wide updates and policies here.

Sincerely,

Alex Sklut
