Next Informational Meeting will be March 26th at Noon
Clinical Placement Program Registration Information

- Interested students must interview with Professor Margaret Ivey in room 223. Sign-up sheets will be posted on her door. Interviews begin on Monday, March 26th and conclude at 4:00 p.m. on Friday, March 30th.
- Before coming to the interview, please review the Clinical Placement Program Student Manual. Electronic copies can be obtained by emailing Jessie Munn at jmunn@richmond.edu. Please note that the manual identifies all available placements, unlike the roster you received with your application.
- Bring a completed application form to the interview. These can also be obtained by emailing Jessie Munn at jmunn@richmond.edu.
- Students will be notified regarding their placement on Monday, April 2nd by 4:30 p.m. and will be given until 9:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 3rd to decide whether to accept the placement.
- Once the placement is assigned, students will need to meet with their assigned field instructor and complete all other registration requirements by Wednesday, April 11th.

DC Externship Program

- If you have not previously met with Dr. Allred to discuss your interest in the DC Externship. Please email him at sallred@richmond.edu to set up an appointment.
- Applications can be obtained by emailing Jessie Munn at jmunn@richmond.edu.
- Students will be notified of acceptance by Monday, April 2nd.

In-House Clinic Registration:

- Registration is subject to third-year preference and is contingent upon approval from the Clinic Director.
- Enrollment in each clinic is capped at eight students.
- Students interested in registering for an In-House Clinic can complete the online application here http://law.richmond.edu/academics/clinics-skills/in-house/application.html [link to online application will be available on 3/26 at 1:00 pm].
- Submit current resume to the individual professors when you set up an interview.
- Acceptance of applications begins at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, March 26th; deadline for applications for the 2018 fall semester and 2019 spring semester is Friday, March 30th at 5:00 p.m.

Wrongful Convictions Clinic:

Students who take the Wrongful Convictions Seminar in the fall have priority enrollment for the eight positions available in the Wrongful Convictions Clinic in the spring. If more than eight students from the seminar are interested in the Clinic, the director will select the eight students for participation. If fewer than eight students from the seminar are interested, the clinic will be open to other students who seek permission from the Director. Non-seminar students need to apply and be interviewed to enroll. In either case, the clinic is capped at eight students. For administrative clarity, all interested students should fill out an application form.

International Business Practice:

- Interested students must interview with Dean Williams by Friday, March 30th at Noon. A sign-up sheet will be posted on his door.
- Applications are attached and can also be obtained by emailing Jessie Munn at jmunn@richmond.edu.
- Students will be notified of acceptance on Monday, April 2nd.
