WRITING SAMPLE

This writing sample is an excerpt from a 30-page paper for a course in First Amendment Law, submitted to Professor Cardozo in spring 2014. To comply with length requirements, I have omitted a section that compared other countries' speech laws to the First Amendment.

(OR)

This memo was prepared for the second-year required Legal Research and Writing course. For space considerations, I have omitted the statement of facts from this writing sample. [statement of problem]

(OR)

Attached is an excerpt from a brief submitted to the Richmond Circuit Court on behalf of a client I represented through the Children's Defense Clinic in the fall of 2013. Included are the statement of facts and my argument section. As supervising attorney, Professor Cardozo gave me feedback on the brief before submission, and gave me permission to use it as a writing sample. The writing is entirely my own. The client received a deferred disposition.

(OR)

This writing sample was taken from my brief for the spring 2014 Moot Court Competition. This excerpt is the first of two issues for which I was responsible.

(OR)

This writing sample is a memorandum submitted in July 2014 to [attorney name], my supervising attorney at Lawyer and Attorney, P.C., on the issue of [issue].

(OR)

The following is an excerpt from my note published in the Winter 2014 edition of the Richmond Journal of Law and Technology.

(OR)

The attached writing sample is a bench brief submitted to Judge Chamberlain Haller during my summer 2014 internship in his chambers. It is submitted with his permission.
